

Triple Eight Professional's Talon Knife

Talon Knife. New to 888 Professional's design team, but not new to savvy knife buyers, Greg Lightfoot puts his easily recognizable style to work in 888's patent-pending folding design. Greg is known for his elegant, flowing work with both folders and brawny fixed blades. Through his design magic, Greg was able to deliver both the high performance blade styles he's known for, and his "tank-tough" fixed blade heritage to this stunner of a folder for 888 Professional. As an everyday companion, the Talon is irresistible and is only $34.95.
